Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her

Knoxville, Iowa. — "I suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more and was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work. I finally wrote to Mrs. Pinkham and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and am glad to say that your medicines and kind letters of directions have done more for me than anything else and I had the best physicians here. I can do my work and rest well at night. I believe there is nothing like the Pinkham remedies." — Mrs. CLARA FRANKS, R. F. D. No. 3, Knoxville, Iowa.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

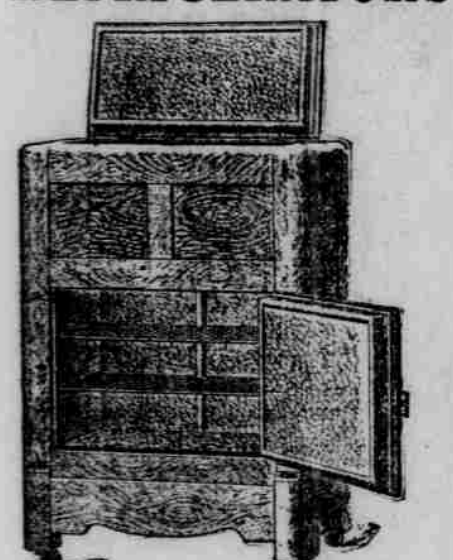

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

Harvard Crew Does Better in the Old Foat—Dip at Ocean Beach and Hard Work Starts Tuesday—Yale Takes a Long Row of a Dozen Miles.

There was no rowing on the Thames for the Yale crews Sunday, the men in the morning either attending church in New London or Norwich, and in the afternoon taking a three hours' sail on Long Island sound in the steam yacht Christobel, owned by Mr. Ferguson. Sunday night a number attended the Methodist church at the Ferry and helped out the church choir. A mile and a half of the course from Bartlett's cove down has been staked out with blue and red flags and the remainder of the course will probably be completed Monday. Tucker of the varsity eight, who has been suffering from indigestion, and who went to New Haven to consult a physician, is expected to return today. Besides visitors from the neighboring cities of New London and Norwich, there were numerous automobile parties of Yale men with their commensurate guests from New Haven. Aside from Tucker the men were in good health and spirits.

Twelve Mile Row.
Coach Kennedy gave the Yale varsity and freshmen eight the longest row they have had since coming to the river. The four only went as far as the navy yard and returned. The row was made in two strokes and varied much from 27 in the trip over the twelve miles. That there is no doubt of the ability of the men to stand up under a long drill it was removed Saturday night, for all the oarsmen finished in fine shape and there was no sign of weakness.

The rain held the crews up for some time and it was late before they all got on the river. The four only went as far as the navy yard and returned. There was no racing and they took it easy.

Harvard Crews in Swimming.
The members of all the Harvard crews were given a treat Sunday when

IN NEW LONDON HARBOR ON FIFTH OF AUGUST.
New York Yacht Club's Annual Cruise Slightly Changed.

Commodore Arthur Curtis James has issued general orders No. 2, which relate to the annual cruise of the New York Yacht club. It was thought that the fleet would touch at Morris Cove, New London, Newport and Vineyard Haven this year, but a change has been made in this programme and Morris Cove omitted and New Bedford substituted.

The programme for the cruise, weather permitting, will be:
Station 10, Glen Grove, at noon on Thursday, August 4, squadron run, Glen Grove to Huntington.
Captains will report on board the flagship at 5 p. m.
Reception on board the flagship at 9 p. m.

Friday, August 5—Squadron run, Huntington to New London.

Saturday, August 6—Squadron run, New London to Newport.

Sunday, August 7—At Newport, the squadron will dress ship at morning colors.

Monday, August 8—Squadron run, Newport to Vineyard Haven.

Tuesday, August 9—Squadron run, Vineyard Haven to New Bedford.

Wednesday, August 10—Squadron run, New Bedford to Newport.

Thursday, August 11—At Newport, Races for Astor cups.

Friday, August 12—At Newport, Race for the king's cup. The squadron will illuminate at 9 p. m.

Saturday, August 13—The squadron will disband.

HAILE CLUB DELEGATES
Attended National Convention of Women Workers' League at Gloucester.

Ten Haile club members were its representatives last week in Gloucester, Mass., at the national convention of the League of Women Workers, held Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They were quartered at the Hawthorne Inn, Gloucester, which has been completely given over to the convention delegates. The Haile club members at the convention were Miss Grace S. Benjamin, the directress, Miss Jennie Kimball, Miss Carrie Parsons, Mrs. J. Stanley Lawler, Miss Sadie Lawler, Miss Mae Rogers, Miss Elizabeth Ott, Miss Genevieve McCormick, Miss Mary Korte and Miss Lillian Rose.

The programme for the business meetings contained much of importance and when business was over, evening socials were held. There were a great number of interesting side trips around Gloucester, Boston and Salem and historic spots. The special feature of the convention's business was a consideration of a proposition for old-age insurance. It was explained to the delegates at the Friday meeting, and a vote was taken upon it on Saturday. The Haile club delegation returned Sunday evening.

NORWICH SAVINGS SOCIETY.
New Trustees Elected at Annual Meeting to Fill Vacancies Caused by Death.

At the annual meeting of the trustees of the Norwich Savings society Saturday morning at the banking house, the reports of the auditing committee and the treasurer were heard and approved. To fill the vacancies caused by the deaths of Henry Larrabee, Bela P. Leonard and Calvin L. Harwood were Mr. Larrabee's grandsons, Allyn L. Brown, James L. Hubbard and Lewis R. Church. Charles Reed was re-elected president of the society and the other officers are: First vice president, Arthur E. Brewer; second vice president, Lillian Brown; third vice president, William H. Palmer; fourth vice president, Charles L. Hubbard; secretary and treasurer, Costello Lippitt; attorney, Willis A. Briscoe; auditor, Frank W. Brewster, John T. Almy and Allyn L. Brown.

The directors are Costello Lippitt, S. Alpheus Gilbert, Albert A. Beckwith, Charles D. Noyes, John C. Morgan, John Porteous, Franklin S. Jerome, Charles R. Butts, Nelson J. Ayling.

Advantage Sometimes Overlooked.
"Another big advantage 'bout steady, hard work," said Uncle Eben, "is dat it keeps a man from havin' time for conversation 'til bunco steers an' gold-brickers."

Inventor Profited Little.
It is said that the inventor of absinth sold his secret for a trifle to a man, who disposed of it for $50,000 to a third person, who made millions out of it.

One Cause of Laughter.
"Man is the only animal that laughs," observes the Philosopher of Polly, "and he only does it, as a rule, to avoid offending the fellow who told the story."

Dr. Ladd, the medical adviser, allowed them to go in swimming. This is the first and probably the only chance the men will have to go into the water voluntarily until after the race. In the morning the men boarded the tug and John Harvard and sailed down to Ocean Beach, where the swim was taken. On leaving the beach the men were taken to a local summer resort, where they ate dinner. With the exception of Bacon the men were in excellent condition, and although only light work will be taken today, the hard practice is scheduled to begin Tuesday.

Shakeup in Harvard Fours.
There were further shakeups in the Harvard fours Saturday night. When the boats left for a trip down the river, the fours were: Varsity, Sargent sat at No. 3, Waite went in at No. 2, with Morgan rowing bow oar. Varsity was coxedwain. Later Waite was taken from the second four and placed at No. 3 in the first, Sargent going in at No. 2. Waite being placed in the second four, Loring took Morgan's seat at bow.

This latest shift seemed to work very well, and the fours appeared in better form with the new arrangement than at any time since they have been at Red Top.

Old Shell Selected.
It has been practically decided to use the old shell in the race on the 30th. The new English shell has been tried, but Coach Wray thinks the men work better in the old one and after the row Saturday night it was practically decided to leave the new shell in the boat house.

The varsity eight went only as far as the navy yard and back. The freshmen eight went over the two mile course, starting at 35 strokes, but later dropping it to 32. At the finish they were rowing 38. The time was announced at 11:10. The freshmen four went on a short time, but only paddled about.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH.
Special Sermon by Pastor, with Programme by Children in the Evening.

An unusually large congregation attended Children's day service at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning. Owing to illness and absence of others expected, only one church was expected to be present.

Preaching was by Rev. Dr. M. S. Kaufman, the pastor, on "The Value of Childhood," from Mark 10:14. He said in part:

Among the many beautiful things Jesus did for our world while on earth, surely one was most beautiful than showing friendship toward little children. Jesus is the children's champion. He is their best friend. Childhood is valuable.

First, because it costs so much. Not only do children cost much in dollars and cents, but estimably more in care, anxiety, pain, suffering and sacrifice. This is one reason why there are not more children in many homes where they could be so well cared for. They are such costly creatures.

Second, they are invaluable by reason of what they may become worth to themselves, to their parents, to society, to the church, to the nation and to the world. Consider the worth and humanity of one such babe as little George Washington. He grew to manhood and developed a character that has filled the earth with fragrance and glory. There are wonderful possibilities in every normal child, rightly trained and educated.

Third, childhood is valuable because it presents to us Christ's ideal of character. The childlike spirit is the true Christian ideal of character. When you have the perfect confidence of a child in its parents, its perfect sincerity and naturalness, and its perfect love, and cherish such sincerity, confidence and love toward Christ then you are a perfect Christian.

It is our high mission as parents and teachers to instruct the children in the simple facts about Jesus that they will know him, love him, obey him, serve him. There is no grander work in this world than that of wisely guiding and training the child to be a real Christian.

To do this successfully we must be genuine Christians ourselves. Let the little ones come unto Him. Forbid them not. Encourage them. Give them sympathy, tender and loving care. Teach them to love Jesus, and in becoming inexpressibly valuable to the world and to God.

Evening Programme.
At the evening church service there was again a large attendance before a special programme was mercifully carried out. There were decorations of laurel, daisies and roses tastefully arranged under the direction of Mrs. William R. Dennison, chairman of the decorating committee. The musical part of the programme was under the direction of Prof. J. H. George, chorister, showing his careful training, assisted by Miss Alice L. Woodward, organist, Miss Edith Lane and Franklin Lord, violinists. The general committee in charge was Mrs. Frank J. King, Mrs. John C. Morgan, Mrs. Ernest Newbury and Mrs. Costello Lippitt, ably assisted by the Misses Myrtle and Viva Himes and Elizabeth

Lane. The following was the programme:
Song, Ye Hills and Vales Awake, by school; welcome by Supt. Costello Lippitt; prayer by Asst. Supt. David Purvis; recitation of twenty-third psalm in unison; song, Hall Children's Day, by school; exercise, Children's Day, by school; recitation, Smiles, Forest Lewis; song, Birdie's Lullaby, Natalie McPherson; exercise, Little Things, Helen Woodworth, Lulu Penfield, Grace Service, Morton Palmer, Avery Stanton, Natalie McPherson, Irene Ruthers, Beattie Brown, Florence Rogers, recitation, Roses, Gladys Newbury; song, The Bright Little Flowers, primary department; exercise, Life's Plams, Carl Hahn, Everett Pierce, E. Hahn, Tibbitts, Libbie Peckham; song, Suffer the Children, Martha Hanson, Isabel Trenton; exercise, Somers Boys of the Bible, Leslie Miller, Milford Newbury, Howard Ives, Arthur Botham, Kenneth Botham, Charles Hadad; song, Praise, school; exercise, A Bunch of Daisies and Daisy Song, Daisy, May Guile, Lucile Guile, Elizabeth Service, Hazel Harsell, Amy Moudon, Ines Clifford, Pauline Kennison; song, Bertha Hahn, Anna Hahn, Hazel Purvis, Marion, recitation, Little Peckham, Helen Hedden, Nellie Tibbitts, Sadie Ladd, Gladys Newbury, Grace Service, Ella Burlingame, Mary Ladd; exercise, Master Thum for Jesus, Mildred Newbury, Arthur Burlingame, W. Gladstone Shaw, Henry Albert Pierce, George Robinson, Norma Hing, singing, O Summer, Wake Thy Son of Praise, school; exercise, The Son of the Flowers, Elizabeth Lane, Winifred Miller, William H. EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIAL.
Last of Season Held at Methodist Church Friday Evening.

On Friday evening the last social of the Epworth league before vacation took place in the parlors of Trinity Methodist church with the largest attendance of the year. The company was exceedingly merry and full of good cheer. The programme was in charge of Miss Anna M. Ingland and Mrs. Kaufman. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Robinson assisted in the serving of lemonade and cake. The following gentlemen were a committee of "merry good cheer": William McNeely, William Eck, Louis Waters and Gurn Miller. The prize winners were Miss Alice McNeely and Winifred Fenton. All the young ladies of the vested choir—twenty-four in number—contributed to the success of the evening by their singing, with Miss Alice L. Woodward as pianist. All had such a good time that this social will be remembered during the vacation season with much pleasure.

A Town of Fresh Surprises.
Mellen is a town of crooked streets that wind about delightfully in its depths and suddenly climb the heights on each hand—a town with a fresh surprise of architecture, of costume or of landscape at every turn. One is constantly finding some landing whence ancient walled streets shoot up on the one hand to the burg and down on the other hand to the river.—From Robert H. Schenck's "Romantic Germany," in Century.

Youngest Great-Grandmother.
Mme. Edna Bertonelle, a seamstress in the Quarter Montmartre, Paris, is held to be the youngest great-grandmother in the world. She was married at the age of 14, and her first child, a girl, married at the same early age. When Edna was 31 she was a grandmother. Her grandson married at 17 a young woman a few days his junior. On her forty-eighth birthday Mme. Bertonelle was a great-grandmother.

Air's Weight.
There is no uniform weight for air. For instance, saw the weight of a cubic foot of air at sea level is 1,700 grains, the pressure removed, say, by its elevation to an altitude of 10,000 feet, its weight would be about the half of 1,700 grains. In other words, the cubic foot, at ten or twelve thousand feet above the sea, would expand to two cubic feet, each of about 850 grains weight.

Knew It All The Time.
Cocaine is pronounced ko-kah-in, accent on the first syllable; not koh-ahn, accent on the last syllable. Parexis is pronounced pa-re-sis, short s, accent on the first syllable; not par-ah-sis, long s, accent on second syllable. And, by the way, why do people say tre-men-jus instead of tremen-dus?—St. Paul (Minn.) Dispatch.

Those Hats.
A teacher of physical culture says the European peasant women are blessed with health and strength because of the exercise they get in carrying heavy baskets on their heads. How strong our fashionable women ought to get this spring!—New York Herald.

Character Indispensable.
Talent helps a man to obtain success, but it is character which secures it for him. A man will succeed with character and very little talent, and will never succeed without character, whatever talent he may have at his disposal.—Max O'Reil.

Conferred on Women Only.
Noble titles in the cause of humanity confer a woman to the "Order of Sidonia," established in 1870 by King John of Saxony. The order was founded in memory of the Duchess Sidonia, great mother of the Albertine line.

In the Sunset of Life.
We all find life is very short, but if we give the last ten years of our lives in solving the innumerable problems that are around us, we shall feel the better for it wherever we go afterward.—Countess of Warwick.

The Cost of Being Beautiful.
The latest scientific experiments prove that to remain eternally young and beautiful you must not only eat and drink in the sparest manner, but undergo actual periods of starvation.

Dramatic Note.
Vice may be a monster of hideous mien, but stage a play or write a book about it, and it beats the deuce how many persons will welcome the monster.—Los Angeles Express.

In Her Favor.
There's one thing to be said in a woman's favor. She seldom starts out with the avowed intention of having "a high old time."

The Secret.
She—I don't see how the freshmen can keep their little caps on their heads. He—Vacuum pressure.—Cornell Widow.

We Give It Up.
Who was the great woman who first thought of cooking sauerkraut and spare ribs together?—Athlison Globe.

Epigrammatic.
When a man is down and out, that is the time he ought to be up and doing.

Judging Character.
Character is told by the voice. It is a telltale of temperament. A heart full of feeling and generous warmth is betrayed in the tones. The blind always read individuals by the voice.
